3. A narrative, not to exceed 500 words, in support of the nomination, addressing the following areas:
4. Significance of contributions.
5. Quality and impact of contributions.
6. Years (durations) of significant effort.
7. Resume, Curriculum Vita, or project description of nominee.
8. For the Mortimer M. Marshall Lifetime Achievement Award, provide a letter of support from a person familiar with the nominee's achievements and relationship with NIBS.

Exceptional Woman in Building Award

Award is presented to an individual woman.

The Exceptional Woman in Building Award will recognize a dynamic-trailblazing woman who has made outstanding contributions to the built environment. This award is in celebration of the industry's remarkable female thought leaders, entrepreneurs, and champions of change.

Future Leaders Award

Award is presented to an individual under the age of 35.

In today's rapidly changing building industry, opportunity is limitless. It's time to recognize the next generation of leaders across the built environment. The Future Leaders Award recognizes an individual under the age of 35, whose innovative talent is driving the industry into the future.

NIBS DEI Leadership Award

Award is presented to a corporation or association.

The statistics show that improvement is needed to increase representation across the built environment. The Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Award seeks to honor champions of diversity and celebrate their exemplary leadership in advancing DEI in the building industry. This award will recognize corporations or associations for their positive impacts on the industry and the community as a whole, by increasing diversity in leadership roles and engaging in ongoing efforts that yield measurable change.

NIBS Innovator Award

Award is presented to an individual, organization, or project.

NIBS champions those who push boundaries and are on the forefront of innovation. The NIBS Innovator Award recognizes an individual, organization, or project that has made ground-breaking advances and significant technological contributions to the built environment.

NIBS Distinguished Service Award

Award is presented to an individual or organizational member of NIBS.

To be awarded to an individual or organization member who has made a substantial contribution in support of the mission, goals, and objectives of NIBS. The Distinguished Service Award will honor the impact made to the entire building community on NIBS' behalf.

The Mortimer M. Marshall Lifetime Achievement Award

Award is presented to an individual who is a member of NIBS.

The highest honor goes to someone who has demonstrated a lifetime of dedication to the mission and goals of the organization. Established in 2011 and named after the first member of NIBS, this award is bestowed upon those who exhibit the passion upon which NIBS was founded.
